The Northfield Schools

DWIGHT L. MOODY, Founder

THE following letter recently received from a friend in Kansas affords the greatest encouragement to us, for we believe that there are many others who will gladly co-operate in the maintenance of the work at Northfield if they realize the appreciation of the Trustees in the co-operation of friends contributing in small amounts.

"In reply to yours of the eighth instant I am sending with this letter my check for five dollars.

"When I first thought of the small amount that I felt that I could spare, it seemed hardly worth the trouble to send it, but when I noticed the very considerable sum that had been obtained by gifts of five dollars and under, I felt encouraged to send you the little that I can spare.

"I am neither rich nor poor, and the demands for money are so insistent that sometimes I am bewildered."

Any contribution may be sent to
